1. As requested by the Executive Officer to the Deputy Director for Support, submitted below for your information are the names of principal non-Agency speakers who have addressed Agency audiences since November 1965. Except for comments made by Mr. George Carroll, Special Assistant to the Vice President of the United States, and those made by Mr. Ralph Scarritt, Director, Foreign Building Operations, Department of State, we believe there were no remarks made by the speakers that are of interest to the DDCI. Comments concerning Mr. Scarritt's lecture were forwarded in a memorandum to the Executive Director-Comptroller through your office on 1 December 1965. A memorandum covering Mr. Carroll's presentation is being submitted in accordance with the reference.
